

Civil Service Comm. Activities

In moving into the 21st Century, the Civil Service Commission has tried various ways and means of ensuring open government and transparency in all their deliberations.

Consequently, viewing their activities depends upon the time frame the researcher is interested in. The buttons, below, will take you to the archives for Agendas, Minutes, and videos (where available) depending upon the system that was in use at the time.

When Civil Service Commission Meetings are held remotely, the meeting room is located here
